

GUYANA WATER INC

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Number:	OPS – 028
Job Title:	Water Wastage Inspector
Location:	Regions
Department:	Operations
Reports To:	Production/Distribution Supervisor
Supervises:	No supervisory responsibilities
Purpose:	To detect leakage on the Company's supply and distribution system and customer wastage to increase revenue coverage.

MAIN DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Inspects the Company's water pipes and fittings in specified areas using best leakage practices including visible detection, step testing, sounding, and report any defects following standard procedures.
- Carryout simple repairs to the Company's assets, such as (re) fitting stop taps, replacing meters, tightening leaking joints and other similar quick repairs, where applicable.
- Inspect customer pipe work and fittings in specified areas for defects including leakage/ tampering and report any defects following standard procedures.
- Carry out simple repairs to customers pipe work such as tightening fittings on stop taps, refit stop taps that have been disconnected, tighten fittings on meters, etc. as a free service and which do not involve the use of any new material.
- Identify illegal connections on site from investigations and billing data.
- Report any illegal connections/meter tampering following standard.
- Serve relevant notices on customers for defective pipe work, fittings, tampering and illegal connection.
- Report any change in uses of property from domestic to commercial following standard procedure.

- Perform other related duties and responsibilities consistent with the purpose and level of the post.

QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE

- Craft Certificate in Plumbing
- Two (2) years experience in maintaining water distribution system